

Top-level advertising

Euromast aluminum flagpoles are characterized by the high level of workmanship and their very high quality. Their modern design goes hand-in-hand with certified materials. Euromast's long-time experience with flags guarantees functionality and confidence.

Euromast flagpoles:

- EN AW6005A alum. alloy with increased T6 tensile strength
- tensile strength (Rm/Rp) up to 290 / 243 MPa
- aluminium surface protection (anodic oxidation)
- variability of use (4 types)
- modern, aesthetic design
- stainless steel components
- anchoring nuts with decorative covers against corrosion
- type label for warranties claims and easy ordering of parts
- easy transport and installation
- accessories and spare parts in stock for immediate shipping

Standard

- external halyard system
- stainless steel cleat
- tilting anchor

Eco

- internal halyard system
- door with lock
- tilting anchor

Exclusive

- internal halyard system
- removable crank handle
- tilting anchor

Banner

Mobile Banner arm for Eco / Exclusive

- rope-free system
- tensioning arm
- tilting anchor

tilting anchor

|                         |                     |       |       |       |
|-------------------------|---------------------|-------|-------|-------|
| height:                 | 5 m                 | 6 m   | 7 m   | 8 m   |
| weight:                 | 13 kg               | 15 kg | 17 kg | 19 kg |
| base (diameter x wall): | 82,5 x 3,5 mm       |       |       |       |
| top (diameter x wall):  | 60 x 2,5 mm         |       |       |       |
| top finial:             | silver ball         |       |       |       |
| tilting anchor:         | 3 x M20 thread bars |       |       |       |

Pole weight specified without anchoring and flag counterweight.